From the Rector...
The Seasons of Life Come and Go...
As we journey on together through the year it is easy to see that the seasons come and go. The seasons of life come and go too. Everything is passing—except the love of God.
The writer of Ecclesiastes reminds us of this truth in Scripture:

A Time for Everything
1 There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven:
2 a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
3 a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,
4 a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
5 a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
6 a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw away,
7 a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,
8 a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

God has made everything suitable for its time.
I know that whatever God does endures forever; nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it.

The Seasons of Church life...
As a living body (Paul used the image of the Body of Christ), the Church has its own seasons. Seasons of quiet preparation in the bleakness of winter, in the anticipation of the new life of Spring. It has seasons of joy and feasting, as well as seasons of gentle and sustained growth, There are, of course, also seasons of the darkest, coldest winter,

The Seasons of my life...
The seasons of my life come and go, and I note their passing.
The cold grey of winter, becomes the sunshine of spring
the bare trees of December are filled by the lush green leaves of June.
The seasons of history come and go;
empires fall away
and leaders process toward obscurity.
Fashions change; philosophies wither.
Causes fade away.
The seasons of my life come and go;
yesterday I ran like a child with the optimism of youth,
but time moves on.
The seasons come and go,
but You are still here, Lord of the Seasons.
I rest again in the changeless season of your eternal faithfulness.

The Seasons of my life...
The seasons of my life come and go,
and I note their passing.
The cold grey of winter,
becomes the sunshine of spring
the bare trees of December are filled by the lush green leaves of June.
The seasons of history come and go;
empires fall away
and leaders process toward obscurity.
Fashions change; philosophies wither.
Causes fade away.
The seasons of my life come and go;
yesterday I ran like a child with the optimism of youth,
but time moves on.
The seasons come and go,
but You are still here, Lord of the Seasons.
I rest again in the changeless season of your eternal faithfulness.

The spiritual journey is a marathon of seasons. Sometimes you can hold your own. Sometimes your side aches, you're hot and you can't get your breath.

Which season are YOU in? Which season is our CHURCH in? Will Summer ever return?

Remember, whatever season you find yourself in, everything is passing, the seasons come and go...
...remember all things are passing...and all will be well.

Grace and peace

The Importance of GIFT AID

Never has it been more crucial to ensure that EVERY income stream into St Mary’s is tax efficient and effective.

IF YOU PAY TAX PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE (how many times must we ask???).....beg.....urge.....challenge......PLEASE make sure you use a Gift Aid envelope if you give ANY cash offering at church—no matter how small or large that offering is.

Please make sure that if you give direct from your bank that you have completed a Gift Aid declaration. You should receive a new form with this magazine to enable you to review your giving...please complete it and return ASAP.

Your support really could help St Mary’s back onto its feet. We will ALL need to play our part. Please do support St Mary’s.....and keep the Tradition alive! Thank you
From Bishop John

Dear Friends,

I am very sorry to have to tell you that – because of the state of my health – I have just been signed ‘OFF by my GP as ‘unfit for work’, and in the next two to three months I will undergo a re-run of some earlier treatment. This means that I will definitely be ‘off sick’ and will be handing over the day to day running of the Diocese to the dean and chapter.

My secretary Jean will handle any general enquiries, but during this time – no matter how long it lasts – I will not be available to anyone.

What Gill and I really need at the moment is privacy.

During the course of this period I will very reluctantly have to make a decision about early retirement. The details of when this might happen will be given as soon as any decisions are made.

Thank you all for your concern.

And with every blessing,

+JOHN Brechin:

BISHOP JOHN HAS NOW ANNOUNCED HIS RETIREMENT, DUE TO ILL-HEALTH, WITH EFFECT FROM 16 OCTOBER 2010
